

2021-2022 ANNUAL REPORT

A summary of CIPhER's accomplishments in educator development and education research

EDUCATOR DEVELOPMENT

- 20 programs with 872 attendees
- Topics included evidence-based course design, assessment strategies, wellness & resilience, precepting, graduate education, education research methods, and diversity, equity, & inclusion
- Rated 4.5/5 on value, quality, & effectiveness

HALLMARK PROGRAMS

- Scholarship of Teaching & Learning (SoTL) Bootcamp: 56 attendees
- Summer Institute in Evidence-Based Teaching & Course Design: 46 attendees
- Teaching & Learning Certificate: 123 attendees

CIPHER PRESENTERS

Programs were led by world-renowned experts from the UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy and beyond, including Drs. Tom Angelo, Tina Brock, Anita Crescenzi, Michelle Farland, Kyle Fassett, Stefanie Ferreri, Michael Fulford, Kathryn Fuller, Robert Granko, Rob Hubal, Klarissa Jackson, Craig Lee, Jacqui McLaughlin, Samantha Meltzer-Brody, Kathryn Morbitzer, Adam Persky, Kathy Sorensen, Deb Sturpe, Kevin Wiltz II, Michael Wolcott, and Jackie Zeeman

EDUCATION RESEARCH

CIPhER designed, implemented, presented, and published original research and scholarship in pharmacy and health sciences education:

- 30 Peer-reviewed publications
- 55 Invited talks, posters, and conference presentations
- Grant funding from AACP, NIGMS, ASHP, Merck, and BPS